This instruction implements AFPD 52-1, Chaplain Corps. It directs procedures that ensure the Air Force Chaplain Corps is structured and organized to meet mission requirements. Requests for waivers must be submitted to the OPR listed above for consideration and approval. This instruction applies to active duty, Air Reserve Component (ARC), and civilian personnel. Ensure that all records created as a result of processes prescribed in this publication are maintained in accordance with Air Force Manual (AFMAN) 33-363, Management of Records, and disposed of in accordance with the Air Force Records Disposition Schedule (RDS) located in the Air Force Records Information Management System (AFRIMS). Refer recommended changes and conflicts between this and other publications to AF/HCX, 1380 Air Force Pentagon, Room 4D286, Washington, DC 20330-1380, on Air Force (AF) Form 847, Recommendation for Change of Publication; route AF Form 847s from the field through the appropriate functional chain of command. Any organization may supplement this volume. Major commands (MAJCOM), field operating agencies (FOA), and direct reporting units (DRU) send one copy of their printed supplement to AF/HCX and an electronic copy to hcx.workflow@pentagon.af.mil; other organizations send one copy of each printed supplement to the next higher headquarters. The use of the name or mark of any specific manufacturer, commercial product, commodity, or service in this publication does not imply endorsement by the Air Force.

SUMMARY OF CHANGES

This publication has been substantially revised and must be completely reviewed. Major changes include guidance as to how the Chief of Chaplains manages the Air Force Chaplain Corps. It also includes the incorporation of the duty title of "Deputy Chief of Chaplains," omitted from the previous interim change of the Air Force Instruction (AFI).

1. Mission. The Air Force Chaplain Corps provides spiritual care and ensures all Airmen and their families have opportunities to exercise their constitutional right to the free exercise of religion.

1.1. Core Capabilities.

1.1.1. Spiritual Care. Meeting the diverse spiritual needs of Airmen and their families.

1.1.2. Advise Leadership. Inform Air Force leaders on matters related to religious, spiritual, ethical, moral and morale concerns and advocate for the religious and spiritual needs of Airmen and their families.

2. Responsibilities and Authorities. This directive establishes the following responsibilities and authorities.

2.1. Chief of Chaplains. Principal advisor for religious matters to the Secretary of the Air Force (SECAF) and Chief of Staff of the Air Force (CSAF) and is responsible for recruiting, organizing, developing and equipping Chaplain Corps personnel. Chief of Chaplains is responsible to the Assistant Vice Chief of Staff of the Air Force.

2.1.1. Develops tactical doctrine and guidance providing oversight of Air Force Chaplain Corps echelons to meet the religious and spiritual needs of Air Force members, their families and other authorized personnel.

2.1.2. Serves on the Armed Forces Chaplains Board (AFCB) in accordance with DoDI 5120.08, Armed Forces Chaplains Board.

3. Chaplain Corps Personnel.

3.1. Advisory Bodies.

3.1.1. The HQ USAF/HC staff provides support to the Chief of Chaplains and advises on issues impacting the Air Force.

3.1.2. The Chaplain Corps Council is the senior advisory body to the Chief of Chaplains on policies and programs affecting the Air Force and makes recommendations for action.

Members of the Council include MAJCOM senior Religious Support Teams (RST) and others determined by AF/HC.

3.1.3. The Chaplain Corps Readiness Working Group (RWG) is a consultative body in support of the Chief of Chaplains and ensures effective communication and coordination on readiness issues throughout the Air Force. (See AFI 52-104, Chaplain Corps Readiness for composition).

3.1.4. The Chaplain Development Team (DT) is the primary advisory group to the Chief of Chaplains on all chaplain force development and utilization issues. (See AFI 52-102V1, Chaplain Professional Development for composition). The Deputy Chief of Chaplains chairs the Chaplain DT.

3.1.5. The Chaplain Assistant DT is the primary advisory group to the Chief of Chaplains on all chaplain assistant force development and utilization issues. (See AFI 52-102V2, Chaplain Assistant Professional Development for composition). The Chaplain Assistant Career Field Manager chairs the Chaplain Assistant DT.

3.2. Positions and Responsibilities.

3.2.1. MAJCOM, FOA and DRU chaplains and functional managers are the principal advisors for religious matters to their respective leadership. In consultation with their staffs, they implement Chaplain Corps guidance and provide functional oversight of Chaplain Corps personnel within their area of responsibility. They also provide advice to the Chief of Chaplains and Chaplain Assistant Career Field Manager.

3.2.2. Wing/installation/group chaplains and Superintendents/NCOICs, Chapel Operations are the principal advisors for religious matters to their respective leadership, and function as the Senior Religious Support Team (RST). They lead their teams to accomplish the Chaplain Corps mission through engaging RSTs in squadron-level units, providing opportunities for the free exercise of religion, and providing spiritual care to Airmen and their families. (T-2) They implement Chaplain Corps guidance and provide oversight of Chaplain Corps personnel within their area of responsibility. They provide advice to the MAJCOM/FOA/DRU/HC staff.

3.2.3. Chaplains. IAW Title 10, United States Code, Section 8067 (h), chaplains provide religious worship and rites, religious accommodation, pastoral care, unit engagement, counseling and spiritual care. Chaplains will not perform duties incompatible with their endorsing organizations, professional role and noncombatant status. (T-0) Chaplains will not serve in any military capacity other than those specific duties contained in the 52XX Specialty Description found in the Air Force Officer Classification Directory. (T-1)

3.2.4. Chaplain Assistants. As non-clergy members of the Chaplain Corps, chaplain assistants partner with chaplains to form Religious Support Teams. They provide religious program management, advice to leadership, crisis intervention, and unit engagement. . Chaplain assistants are trained to provide spiritual care in a religiously pluralistic environment. The chaplain assistant specialty description is specified in the Air Force Enlisted Classification Directory. The chaplain assistant is vital to the Chaplain Corps mission and will not serve in long-term additional Ready Program duties in accordance with the AFI 10-2501, Air Force Emergency Management (EM) Program Planning and Operations and AFPAM 10-243, Augmentation Duty. Chaplain assistants coordinate and facilitate force protection for chaplains. Chaplain assistants will qualify on the M9 and draw it as their primary weapon.

3.2.5. Religious Support Team (RST). The RST is comprised of one Air Force Chaplain and one Chaplain Assistant at home and deployed locations. An RST will be assigned and actively engaged in each squadron and provide warrior care that is supportive of all Airmen. (T-2) The RST provides or provides for religious support (to include rites, religious observances, religious education, unit engagement, and spiritual care). RSTs also provide advice to leadership (to include advice concerning spiritual, ethical, moral, morale and religious accommodation matters affecting personnel, as well as religious issues in the operational area).

3.3. Terms of address or salutation for chaplains.

3.3.1. Use title and rank (Chaplain, Captain Brown) in official correspondence. (T-3)

3.3.2. Address chaplains as “chaplain” regardless of rank.

3.3.3. Chaplains may also be addressed by traditional or denominational titles (i.e. Father White, Rabbi Green, etc.).

3.4. Standardized duty titles for chaplains. Standardization of duty titles assists Chaplain Corps officer career progression and clearly defines duty distinctions. The following duty titles are the only authorized titles for chaplains. Duty titles other than those listed in this AFI are not authorized. (NOTE: Grade references below serve as a guide for granting duty titles to individuals. The establishing of required and authorized grades on unit manpower documents shall follow appropriate 38-series manpower guidance.)

3.4.7. Units below wing-level.

3.4.7.1. Group Chaplain. A chaplain, below wing-level, responsible to the unit commander for all Chaplain Corps personnel, operations and resources supporting the installation mission. (T-2)

3.4.7.2. Chaplain. A chaplain responsible to the Group Chaplain who performs assigned functions. (T-2)

3.5. Standardized duty titles for chaplain assistants. Standardization of duty titles assists Chaplain Corps enlisted career progression and clearly defines duty distinctions. The following duty titles are the only official, authorized titles for chaplain assistants. Duty titles other than those listed in this AFI are not authorized. (NOTE: Grade references below serve as a guide for granting duty titles to individuals. The establishing of required and authorized grades on unit manpower documents shall follow appropriate 38-series manpower guidance.)

3.5.1. Headquarters Air Force (HQ USAF).

3.5.1.1. Chaplain Assistant Air Force Career Field Manager (AFCFM). A chaplain assistant, in the rank of Chief Master Sergeant (CMSgt), responsible to the Chief of Chaplains for organizing and managing the chaplain assistant career field.

3.5.1.2. Manager, (Insert Function). A S/NCO who is a program, project, and policy manager at the Air Staff level. He/she may or may not supervise others and may be the enlisted leader of the branch, division, or directorate.

3.5.2. MAJCOM/FOA/DRU.

3.5.2.1. Chaplain Assistant MAJCOM/FOA/DRU Functional Manager (MFM). A chaplain assistant in the rank of Chief Master Sergeant, Senior Master Sergeant or Master Sergeant responsible for organizing and managing the chaplain assistant career field within a MAJCOM/FOA/DRU (e.g., ACC Chaplain Assistant Functional Manager; USAFA Chaplain Assistant Functional Manager). (T-2)

3.5.2.2. Manager, (Insert Function). A S/NCO who is a program, project, and policy manager at the MAJCOM, FOA, or DRU levels. He/she may or may not supervise others and may be the enlisted leader of the branch, division, or directorate. (T-2)

3.5.2.3. Chief, Chaplain Corps College. A chaplain assistant, in the rank of Chief Master Sergeant, who directs the implementation of technical training courses to meet Specialty Training Standard (STS) requirements, works with ECPD/MSOT on technical training matters, and provides oversight to the Career Development Course (CDC) Writer and the Manager, Chaplain Corps College Education Department to ensure effective education and training programs that are consistent with STS requirements. (T-2)

3.5.3. Wing-level and below.

3.5.3.1. Superintendent or NCOIC, Chapel Operations. A SNCO (Superintendent) or NCO (NCOIC) in charge of wing-level chapel operations. (T-2)

3.5.3.2. NCOIC, (Insert Function). A NCO subordinate to the Superintendent or NCOIC, Chapel Operations who performs an assigned function within the chapel program (e.g., NCOIC, Resource Management). (T-2)

3.5.3.3. Chaplain Assistant. A chaplain assistant in the rank of Senior Airman or below. (T-2)

3.6. Special Duty Positions. A chaplain assistant serving in unique duty positions such as Technical Training Instructor or Career Development Course (CDC) Writer will use duty titles commonly identified for those positions.

3.7. Resource Personnel. The wing chaplain (or equivalent) authorizes and directs qualified resource personnel to provide for religious program requirements that cannot be provided by assigned Chaplain Corps personnel.

3.7.1. Certifying Resource Personnel. The wing chaplain (or equivalent) will annually validate all resource personnel requirements and performance agreements, ensure required letters of certification from a recognized religious organization are on file and brief these personnel on requirements, restrictions, prohibitions, and performance expectations. (T-1) A statement of work (SOW) for contractors fulfills the requirement for a performance agreement. The wing chaplain and resource personnel will sign the performance agreement(s). (T-2) Maintain documentation in official files. (T-2)

3.7.2. Civilian Clergy. Personnel who serve in Civil Service positions or as contractors. These individuals are not chaplains and will not use the duty title of "chaplain". (T-2) They must meet the same educational requirements outlined in AFI 36-2005, Appointment in Commissioned Grades and Designation and Assignment in Professional Categories - Reserve of the Air Force and United States Air Force and provide a valid DD Form 2088, Statement of Ecclesiastical Endorsement from a recognized religious organization. (T-0)

3.7.3. Distinctive Religious Group Leaders (DRGLs)/Non-chaplain Lay Leaders. Personnel (e.g., Buddhist Lay Leader, Church of Christ Lay Leader, Muslim Lay Leader) must provide written validation of their credentials on official letterhead (original; no photocopies) by a recognized religious organization, which will serve as the credential recognized by the Armed Forces Chaplains Board (AFCB). (T-0) Documentation must be maintained in official files. (T-2)

3.7.4. Civil Air Patrol (CAP) Chaplains. In contingencies and local emergencies, or in exceptional cases where active duty and ARC chaplains are unavailable, wing chaplains (or equivalents) are authorized to use fully qualified volunteer CAP chaplains to provide chaplain ministries as needed. (T-1) Serving as Air Force Auxiliary chaplains, CAP chaplains are covered by Title 10, Subtitle D, Part III, Chapter 909, Section 9442, Federal Tort Claims Act and Federal Employee Compensation Act. (See AFI 10-2701, Organization and Function of the Civil Air Patrol)

3.7.5. Special Resource Personnel. Qualified personnel who provide program or support functions for mission-specific religious requirements (e.g., Religious Education Director or Parish Coordinator).

3.7.6. Volunteers. Anyone serving Chaplain Corps programs who teaches or cares for youth (18 years and under) on a reoccurring basis must obtain an Installation Records Check (IRC) to meet the requirements in DoDI 1402.5, Criminal History Background Checks on Individuals in Child Care Services. (T-0) Upon favorable completion of the IRC, volunteers may provide services. While awaiting IRC completion, volunteers may provide services ONLY when they are always within line-of-sight supervision of an individual with a favorable completed IRC.

3.8. Chapel Organizations. Wing chaplains (or equivalents), in coordination with their staffs and advisory groups, will provide oversight to organizations enhancing the Chaplain Corps mission. (T-2) These organizations are a part of the Chaplain Corps program. They are not private organizations and do not require charters (e.g., Protestant Women of the Chapel, Catholic Youth of the Chapel).

3.9. Lay Organizations. Chaplains may support faith group-specific lay organizations with the concurrence of the wing/installation chaplain (or equivalent). Lay organizations have a primarily religious focus but are not Chaplain Corps programs. Their activities are consistent with the Chaplain Corps mission of providing spiritual care and opportunities for the free exercise of religion (e.g., Officers' Christian Fellowship (OCF), Mothers of Preschoolers (MOPS), The Navigators, The Knights of Columbus, Campus Crusade for Christ and Worldwide Marriage Encounter).

3.9.1. Lay Organization Oversight. The wing chaplain has oversight of all religious activities at a wing/installation. Lay organizations are required to sign a Memorandum of Agreement (MoA) annually with the wing chaplain (or equivalent). The MoA, at minimum, must outline the roles, responsibilities (to include funding) and relationships between the wing and the lay organization. The MoA must also delineate the appropriate professional behaviors required for the lay organization to operate at a wing/installation. (T-2)

3.9.2. Lay Organizations Resourcing. Lay organizations are financially and operationally self-sustaining, primarily through dues, contributions, service charges, fees, or special assessment of members. Their funds are independent of Chapel Tithes and Offerings funds (CTOF). Lay organizations will not be included in the comprehensive Chapel Program Plan Appropriated or CTOF budget. They may apply for and receive occasional CTOF support.

4. Religious Services and Education. On behalf of the commander, the wing/installation/senior chaplain is responsible for religious rites, services and education conducted on Air Force bases, joint bases, installations, sites and other locations governed by a MoU/MoA.

4.1. Religious Accommodation. Chaplain Corps personnel advise and assist commanders and supervisors in responding to and facilitating religious accommodation requests. In accordance with DoDI 1300.17, Accommodation of Religious Practices Within the Military Services, section 4, “it is DoD policy that requests for accommodation of religious practices should be approved by commanders when accommodation will not have an adverse impact on mission accomplishment, military readiness, unit cohesion, standards, or discipline.” (T-0)

4.2. Religious Services.

4.2.1. Religious Holy Days. To facilitate the free exercise of religion of military personnel, the Chaplain Corps advises leadership regarding Holy Day observances in order to minimize scheduling conflicts. The Chaplain Corps provides or provides for accommodation of these observances.

4.2.2. Worship. The senior RST with their team plan, provide, and advertise worship opportunities in response to the religious needs of assigned Airmen and their families, with consideration of staff capabilities and available resources. (T-1)

4.2.2.1. Leading Worship. Chaplains conduct worship services consistent with the tenets of their respective endorsing religious organization.

4.2.2.2. Protestant Worship. When there is only one worship service, led by a Protestant Chaplain it may be advertised as “Protestant Worship”. When there is a need to offer multiple Protestant services in various styles, they will be advertised using the terms: liturgical, traditional, contemporary, gospel, and community. (T-3)

4.2.2.3. Additional Worship. When the wing chaplain (or equivalent) validates and documents a need for worship opportunities or other religious support the assigned chaplains cannot provide, he/she may coordinate with civilian religious leaders in the area to provide for the religious needs of Airmen and their families. (See 3.7.5.) (T-3)

4.3. Religious Education Resources.

4.3.1. Religious Education Curricula. Wing chaplains (or equivalents), in consultation with their staffs, ensure curricula meet the needs of religious communities and does not denigrate any religious faith group. (T-3)

4.3.2. Religious Literature. Wing chaplains (or equivalents), in consultation with their staffs, review the contents and display of religious literature and ensure these do not denigrate any religious group. (T-2)

5. Spiritual Care.

5.1. Privileged Communication. Privileged communication is protected communication IAW Military Rule of Evidence 503. Under this rule, “a person has a privilege to refuse to disclose and to prevent another from disclosing a confidential communication by the person to a clergyman or to a clergyman’s assistant, if such communication is made either as a formal act of religion or as a matter of conscience.”

5.1.1. Written Consent. Under no circumstances may a chaplain or chaplain assistant disclose privileged communication revealed in the practice of his/her official capacity without the individual’s informed, written consent. (T-0) The individual’s written consent must be signed, dated and witnessed by a disinterested third party. The written consent must be maintained by the Chaplain Corps member in his or her personal files. A release from privileged communication is inapplicable in cases where a chaplain is bound by the requirements of sacramental confession. (T-0)

5.1.2. Judicial Proceedings. The Manual for Courts-Martial further affirms the absolute character of such privileged communication within the context of judicial proceedings and investigations for chaplains and chaplain assistants.

5.1.3. Ownership. The privilege against disclosure belongs to the individual and extends beyond the death of the individual.

5.1.4. Protected Information. Chaplains’ notes from privileged communication are to be clearly marked “Confidential: Privileged Communication” and distinguished in the chaplain’s personal files. (T-0) Protected information will be properly secured and safeguarded from inadvertent disclosure and password-protected if stored electronically.

5.1.5. Official and Private File Systems. Files containing privileged communication are the personal files of the individual chaplain or chaplain assistant. These files are not to be maintained in any system of records that may be subject to the Freedom of Information Act, 5 U.S.C. § 552. (T-0) All privileged communication must be secured and safeguarded by chaplains and chaplain assistants, who will personally dispose of them and ensure their destruction through a secure means (e.g., shredder). In the case of a death of a Chaplain Corps member, a chaplain will be appointed to review the deceased’s personal files and dispose of any files containing privileged communication.

5.1.6. Chapel Staff and Privileged Communication. Under Military Rule of Evidence 503, chaplains and chaplain assistants may receive privileged communication.

Additionally, in the event secretaries, contractors or volunteers inadvertently or unintentionally receive or overhear intended privileged communication, they must protect such information.

5.1.7. Privileged Communication between Chaplain Corps Personnel. Communication between supervisors and subordinates is not privileged communication. Supervisors should avoid counseling subordinates and their family members due to a conflict of interest. Chaplain Corps staff members are encouraged to exercise this privilege with a chaplain outside their chain of command when such communication is needed.

5.1.8. Violation of Privileged Communication. Actions inconsistent with the policies/standards outlined above will constitute a failure to meet Air Force standards and may result in administrative or Uniform Code of Military Justice (UCMJ) action. Wing chaplains (or equivalents) must consult with the local Staff Judge Advocate should they become aware of such actions.

5.1.9. Incompatible Taskings. Commanders will not task chaplains or chaplain assistants to serve in a capacity in which they may be called upon to reveal privileged communication. (T-0)

5.2. Death Notifications. Chaplains serve on commander-led death notification teams. They provide pastoral care and support for next-of-kin and death notification team members. Chaplains will not be assigned the duty of Casualty Notification Officer. (T-3)

5.3. Airmen Ministry Centers. Chaplain Corps may sponsor facilities dedicated to meeting the religious, spiritual and pastoral care needs of Airmen. (See AFI 65-601V1, Budget Guidance and Procedures).

6. Advising Leadership. Chaplain Corps personnel at all echelons advise leadership in all matters pertaining to religion and the accommodation of practices arising from religious faith, ethical decision-making and moral reasoning. Additionally, Chaplain Corps personnel serve as principal advisors to leadership regarding the spiritual pillar of Comprehensive Airman Fitness (CAF). Chaplain Corps personnel provide the following:

6.1. Advice regarding the potential mission impact of religion at the strategic, operational and tactical level.

6.2. Updates on the religious, ethical, and moral health of the unit and opportunities for religious expression.

6.3. Advice regarding public prayer, memorials, prayer at official functions and meetings, visits by ecclesiastical endorsing agencies and relations with civilian religious leaders and their communities.

7. Reporting Death, Hospitalization and Illness of Chaplain Corps Personnel. Wing and MAJCOM-level senior RSTs report to the next functional level the death, hospitalization or serious illness of Chaplain Corps personnel and are encouraged to report this same information regarding their sponsored family members. (T-3) Reports are made within 24 hours using AF Form 4376.

8. Air Force Chaplain Corps Activity Reporting System (AFCCARS).

8.1. AFCCARS translates Chaplain Corps functional activities and strategic priorities into weighable and objective data. It tracks warrior care and core activities to assist in tactical, operational, and strategic trend analysis, risk assessment, and execution planning.

8.2. All wing/installation-level active duty chaplains, chaplain assistants and auxiliary clergy assigned to Air Force reporting organizations will use AFCCARS on a daily basis to record their participation in Chaplain Corps functional activities, to include unit engagement, pastoral and crisis intervention counseling, and religious and spiritual accommodation. (T-1)

8.2.1. The recording of functional activities is an individual responsibility and cannot be delegated or reassigned to anyone other than the member completing or sponsoring the activity.

8.3. AFCCARS data aggregates will be generated and routed to HQ USAF/HC as directed by HQ USAF/HCXR. (T-1)

HOWARD D. STENDAHL
Chaplain, Major General, USAF
Chief of Chaplains
