Look, you little a---le, I don't want to hear from you anymore... Do you understand that?!... When you send an email to me which includes the words "your days are numbered" please understand we coordinate with our own security and law-enforcement... We get a lot of threats and your name has been added to that list right now...I think you are a very good example of what happens when a fetus doesn't get enough oxygen at birth...

Mikey, my version of Christianity is biblical Christianity, the same that Jesus, a Jew taught to all His other Jews. My opinions and my facts come from scripture.

Everyone that does not know scripture uses Matthew 7:1, but why don't you look at verse 2 as well - Matthew 7:2 (ESV)

²For with the judgment you pronounce you will be judged, and with the measure you use it will be measured to you.

Jesus is not saying to not judge, we all make judgments all day long. If verse 1 were to stand alone, then we should not have any lawyers or judges in our courts. Don't court judges pronounce judgments on people?

Mikey you prove that you are a narcissist because you feel that you always have to belittle someone else in order to elevate yourself above them. This is also a clear sign of someone who is a bully as well.

Just look "little creampuff" "little fool" – these prove that you are a narcissist. You always have to belittle someone to make yourself more superior.

How does it make you feel when God says that you are a fool! How does it make you feel that God can squish you like a little creampuff if He wanted to?? He won't because He loves you too much and greatly desires that you become a child of His by accepting Christ as your Messiah.

Oh yeah, Christianity came out of Judaism, so you can say that Christianity is not another religion but Judaism taken to a higher level or Messianic Judaism. You see Mikey, as a believer in Christ, I have now been engrafted to Judaism and all the promises God made to the Jewish people are now mine as well through Christ.

Being Jewish I fully reject your version of Christianity and your version of Jesus... That said, little creampuff, your fantasies belong to you... And you alone... You're entitled to your own opinions but not your own facts... Perhaps you should check out Matthew 7:1 regarding judge not lest you be judged, little fool...you see in America, we are a secular democratic republic where Christianity is given absolutely no special favor over any other faith or lack thereof... You're going to have to come to grips with this little man...

You make me laugh Mikey you really do. My opinions as you call them come from the same bible you love to prevent military personnel from reading.

I am sure you have heard this before - no weapon that is fashioned against you shall succeed, and you shall refute every tongue that rises against you in judgment. This is the heritage of the servants of the LORD and their vindication from me, declares the LORD."
Isaiah 54:17 – This comes from one of your own prophets in the Old Testament.

I have read to the end of the bible, and it says that Christians and Messianic Jews win, you are fighting a losing battle Mikey. Besides, the Constitution means nothing to God, when you stand before Him one day you will not be judged by how you followed the Constitution, but by whether you and your family have accepted Christ as your Messiah.

Hmm, poorly educated, well Mikey I have a master's degree, what do you have? I know you went to the Air Force Academy, so you have me to thank and all the other tax-payers in the United States for your education. I had to pay for my own education to put myself through the finest Christian university and seminary in the land. I paid for my education while you mooched off the tax-payers for yours.

I really feel sorry for you Mikey, you are a classic narcissist according to the DSM IV psychological manual. Here read for yourself, this describes you to a tee - <http://www.halcyon.com/jmashmun/npd/dsm-iv.html> This link takes you to the description of the DSM-IV of narcissism which is a personality disorder. The good news is that Jesus can heal you of that!

You just love stringing adjectives together, especially when you know nothing about me.

Repent and accept Christ as your Messiah!

"Thank You" Email to MRFF from Appreciative U.S. Army Civilian Family for Stopping Christian Proselytizing at Child Development Center on Military Installation

From: U.S. Army Civilian's E-Mail Address Withheld

Subject: MRFF Helped My Family

Date: December 29, 2016 at 11:14:44 AM MST

To: Mikey Weinstein (mikey@militaryreligiousfreedom.org)

I've followed the work of MRFF for years, donating when I could. I was always grateful that my experience as a former active duty U.S. Army soldier and as a current DoD civilian was free of the aggressive, fundamentalist Christian agenda which is so pervasive in today's armed forces and which MRFF fights so hard against every day. I work on a diverse, research-focused Army base with many viewpoints and faiths. I'm a scientist, and have always kept a clear separation between my faith and my work. The community on base, as a rule, has done so as well.

What I didn't count on was that my child would be blatantly proselytized by the Christian staff in her ON-BASE pre-Kindergarten class. I happen to be of the Jewish faith as is my child. I didn't realize that perhaps otherwise well-meaning people of a majority faith would send my daughter home with Christian vocabulary words and the belief that she was "the only Jewish person who believes in Jesus." And when I brought it to the attention of the ON-BASE school's leadership, I couldn't get them to understand why this was wrong, and why it demanded a response. My wife and I felt genuinely alone and hurt, faced with an indifferent bureaucracy... but because of MRFF's outreach efforts, I knew who to call.

Within a few minutes of my inquiry, MRFF roared into action. It was like calling in an air strike. I provided a detailed explanation of the circumstances, Mikey identified the key personnel and contacted them directly. And 18 hours later, our command leadership called me with the kind of response we hoped for - an apology, and a plan to ensure the secular, rigorous education my daughter has a right to on our military installation. Because of Mikey and the MRFF's advocacy, my daughter's rights have been emphatically defended.

When I needed them, the MRFF was there. Not a voice mail, not a comment card - real, aggressive people who fight for our rights. A donation to MRFF ensures that the Foundation can respond with overwhelming force, get the attention of those in command, and set things right.

I took an oath to defend the Constitution, twice. Donating to MRFF is one way I can live up to that promise.
